2017 Member Award Winners:

BETH OVERCASH

SPENCER LUEDERS

ALEXIS FLETEMIER

2017 Committee Volunteer of the Year

Beth Overcash joined BOMA while living and working in Raleigh, and has been a BOMA member for 15 years. She has volunteered many hours with BOMA Greater Charlotte over the past 2 years, planning and executing our Community Outreach events with Ronald McDonald House. Ronald McDonald House has long been a favorite of our volunteers, allowing us to provide meals for families that are in the difficult position of having seriously-ill children receiving treatment in Charlotte-area medical facilities.

As our liaison with Ronald McDonald House, she has planned menus, organized volunteers and managed events from cooking to clean-up. BOMA Greater Charlotte appreciates the time and energy Beth has given to our outreach efforts!

2017 Allied Member of the Year

Spencer Lueders has been incredibly involved with BOMA this year. Not only has he attended and sponsored nearly all events, but his creativity has helped BOMA change our ways to adapt to be more reflective of our current membership base. He had a vision to move our traditional grass golf tournament to TopGolf and took it upon himself to travel to Atlanta to observe a TopGolf tournament from start to finish before the Charlotte facility opened. The event was very successful, as it was sold out with nearly 200 engagement for the association. Spencers actions and involvement have helped the organization attract a group of members that typically might not be involved. BOMA Greater Charlotte is thankful for your contributions in making our association better.

2017 Principal Member of the Year

Alexis Fletemier has done a phenomenal job of adding the right amount of governance and rigor around the organizations financial acumen. With her leadership and partnership with Navarro Group, the organization has been able to track and trend profitability for each event with more confidence to help shape future events. The Board is the most informed it has been financially in over a decade with her leadership. BOMA Greater Charlotte is grateful for your leadership.
